2010 COMMUNITY
CLINICIAN OF THE YEAR

James G. Broadhurst, MD, MPH

Dr. Broadhurst is Assistant Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Community Health and Associate Director, Family Practice Residency at the University of Massachusetts Medical School. He is also Associate Director, Sports Medicine Fellowship Department of Family Medicine and Community

Health, Fitchburg Family Practice Program and Staff physician, Shrewsbury Family Practice, UMass Memorial Medical Group-Shrewsbury and Medical Director of the Health Awareness Services of Central MA.

Under his leadership as chair of the WDMS public health committee, he's collaborated with the Worcester Division of Public Health on the development of a community immunization program, disaster preparedness, and the designation of the city of Worcester as a "heart healthy community"

He was an active leader in the community's oral health initiative, and devoted his time and energy toward the establishment of smoke free environments, the WDMS Rx Fund to support patients lacking insurance to obtain prescription medication and collaborated with the Injury Free Coalition for Kids to promote the Goods for Guns Program, reducing the number of firearms within the community.

Dr. Broadhurst's contributions have been essential in building a framework for physician involvement in the health of our community, and have led to substantive improvements in the health of the people that we serve.

WDMS is proud to honor Dr. Broadhurst for his significant contributions to patients and the community with the 2010 Community Clinician of the Year Award.

Nominator: Daniel Lasser, MD, MPH

George Abraham, MD, MPH with Rang Laya

'Rang Laya', (pronounced 'RUNG LAAYA') formerly known as 'The New England Choristers' are a group hailing from all parts of the globe who have come together because of their common passion to touch people's lives through music. The group sings in a blend of contemporary styles and different languages, and attempts to create that potpourri of colors that signifies its name.

Becky Spanagel, MD and son Paul Spanagel

Rebecca Spanagel, M.D. practices internal medicine and sees outpatients at St Vincent Hospital, where she also serves as the medical student site coordinator for the Department of Internal medicine.

Paul Spanagel is a senior at the Francis Parker Charter School in Devens. His musical training began at the age of 4 with Suzuki cello lessons, and now includes vocal training with Stanley Wilson. He is planning to continue studies in music and theater at Vassar college this fall.
